DiscussIT Topic 6: Where is our country headed?

Discuss IT Topic: Over the last week, our country has had growing concerns on immigration bans, border safety, and executive orders that remind us of issues that have been plaguing our country for years. Now that Trump has been elected President, there has been people threatening to blow up the White House, human right protests, and a plethora of other sensitive subject matters that are very compelling to individual groups of people. Why have these issues come up now as we head into a time in which it seems no one is going to be happy with the outcomes? Will this create a split in this country and place citizens against one another when it comes to their views? In your opinion, what other topics are at the forefront of concern? Explain...

Response: Please make sure all grammar, spelling, indentation, and punctuation is correct.

- In my opinion, these issues have come up now, and have blown up only because people don't like Trump. Since he is very straight forward and doesn't care about what people say about him, he is an easy target to hate. It's easy to just blame him for everything and correlate every negative thing to him. People don't give him a chance and just assume everything he does is a bad thing. This probably will split the country and place citizens against one another because everyone has too much obnoxious pride and is not willing to hear each other out. Other topics at the forefront of concern are women's rights and the enemies of the country.
